Trying to get pregnant?
Male Infertility Research

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

For a research study on the effect of antioxidants on semen and male infertility.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

- Males at least 18 years old.
- Males with at least one abnormal semen measure within past 6 months.
- Females at least 18 years old and no older than 38 with regular menstrual periods.
- Couples with more than one year of infertility.
- Couples who are seeking pregnancy.

VOLUNTEERS WILL

- Males will take study medications.
- Couples will have office visits to the Reproductive Endocrinology and Infertility Clinic.
- Participants will undergo physical exam, blood work, test to determine if fallopian tubes are open, semen analysis, and intrauterine inseminations.
- Participants will keep diary.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

PLEASE CONTACT

RESEARCH COORDINATOR

405-271-9204