OU Growth Fund
This is a campus-specific fund outlined in the OU Intellectual Property policy that strengthens the commercial potential of disclosed University of Oklahoma innovations, and is available to researchers on all three campuses seeking funding for prototypes and/or additional commercially-focused research results.

All campus faculty, staff, and graduate students are eligible, and must have a disclosure on file with the Office of Technology Commercialization prior to application. More about the disclosure process can be found here.

The Growth Fund is strategically separated into two phases: Marketing Discovery and Translational Research. These phases build upon each other to provide crucial insights into a technology's commercial value and progress along its commercial development pathway. <https://www.ou.edu/otc/growthfund>
